Harvest Festival Service

Balerno and Currie churches will join together on Sunday 1st October to celebrate at Balerno Parish Church at 10am

We will be preparing for this on Saturday 30th September from 10am and if anyone wishes to bring down Harvest gifts they would be very welcome or these can be brought to the service on Sunday

As in previous years any fresh produce will be given to The Mill Café to be used but mainly we ask for non-perishable goods that will be sent to the local food banks.

New Scots Project

Fun Afternoon on Saturday 14th October 2023, 2-5pm at Gibson Craig Halls

Extending a hand of friendship to Refugees who have fled, War, Unrest, Persecution and Intolerance and find themselves living in EH14 . Activities for the children & teens – crafts and games/sports, and a “quiet” space for adults to chat with one another ,form new friendships and make connections with local residents.

Pizza, teas & coffees will be provided.

If you are interested in joining the fun, have brilliant ideas of what we can do or can help in any way, please contact Fiona Pigott (email: fpigott19@gmail.com, mob: 07874 282480 Currie Kirk
